Repatriation of Chakma refugees

677. SHRI HARVENDRA SINGH HANSPAL: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether an agreement with Bangladesh was made some time back for the early repatriation of nearly 50,000 tribles mostly Chakmas, who had taken shelter in India;

(b) if so, what are the details of the agreement made;

(c) whether all the Chakma refugees have since been sent to Bangladesh; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. It was decided at a meeting of district officials on December 29, 1986, that the repatriation of Bangladeshi Chama refugees from the refugee camps in Tripura would begin on January 15th. This was to be confirmed by a group of refugee leaders who visited the Chittagong Hill Tracts in early January 1987. They returned from that visit unconvinced that the refugees would be safe if they returned. This assessment was reinforced by the continuing inflow of refugees. In the circumstances the refugees refused to leave.

(c) No, Sir, as is evident from the above.

(d) Does not arise.

678. [Transferred to the 18 November, 1987]
